

1364-1380

1912 Dates J-BK

France

CHARLES V.

1364 & 1367

Jan 14/1

Poland & Lithuania

Casimir III extended the Charter

1364

John of France died; Charles V
the Wise Accession

1912 Dates J-BK

1364

(1337-1380) CHARLES V, the WISE
King of France. (1364-1380). Son of John II, the Good. On his father's capture at POITIEURS by the Black Prince, Charles took the regency of France. The peasants made a desperate effort to deliver themselves from the power of the nobles. This insurrection is known as the JACQUERIE (1358). The peasants ~~the~~ laid hundreds of castles in runs, murdered the nobles, and practiced every atrocity. The nobles combined and the peasants were defeated with terrible slaughter by Charles the Bad of Navarre. In 2 weeks 20,000 were slain. This retaliation went on for two years. Charles became King in 1364. He did much to consolidate his empire and to drive out the English. He founded the BIBLIOTHÈQUE ROYALE and built the BASTILLE to keep the turbulent citizens of Paris in order.

1364 -1380

1912 Dates J-BK

Italy

Tyrants in Italy

1364

Dondi's great astronomical clock